RIGHTS OF PURCHASER AND CONSEQUENCES FOR FAILURE TO DISCLOSE: If the property disclosure document is delivered after the purchaser makes an offer, the purchaser can terminate any resulting real estate contract or withdraw the offer for up to 72 hours after receipt of the Property Disclosure Document. This termination or withdrawal will always be without penalty to the purchaser and any deposit or earnest money must be promptly returned to the purchaser (despite any agreement to the contrary).

DUTIES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSEES AND CONSEQUENCES FOR FAILURE TO FULFILL SUCH DUTIES: Louisiana law requires real estate licensees to inform their clients of those clients' duties and rights in connection with the Property Disclosure Document discussed above. Failure to inform could subject the licensee to censure or suspension or revocation of their license, as well as fines. The licensee is not liable for any error, inaccuracy, or omission in a Property Disclosure Document, unless the person has actual knowledge of the error, inaccuracy, or omission by the seller.

OTHER IMPORTANT PROVISIONS OF THE LAW:

- A Property Disclosure Document shall not be considered a warranty by the seller.
- A Property Disclosure Document is for disclosure purposes only; it is not intended to be part of any contract between the seller and the purchaser.
- The Property Disclosure Document may not be used as a substitute for any inspections or warranties that the purchasers or seller may obtain.
- Nothing in this law precludes the rights or duties of a purchaser to inspect the physical condition of the property.

KEY DEFINITIONS:

- Residential real property is real property consisting of one or not more than four residential dwelling units, which are buildings or structures each of which are occupied or intended for occupancy as single-family residences.
